Meeting People Where They Live

Ken Regan

Vice President Regan Development

ken@regandevlopment.com

A family-operated business for more than 20 years, Regan Development is committed to including affordable, supportive, special needs housing in their portfolio. With specialized design features for accessibility and special care partnerships for those facing physical challenges, Regan has created unique partnerships to address the housing and service needs for those living with physical and cognitive disabilities. Regan Development has created many apartments for this population, in partnership with the National Multiple Sclerosis Society and I Choose Home NJ.

Building Capacity - What does your organization need to advance its mission?

Tyler Manley

Senior Manager of Nonprofit Engagement CatchaFire

tyler@catchafire.org

The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation has partnered with CatchaFire, an online tool that connects nonprofits based in New Jersey with professionals who want to donate their skills, pro bono. This partnership gives you access to capacity building support like creating a marketing strategy, building a website, graphic designs, etc. for free, and supports their mission to create a strong Culture of Health. Tyler Manley will be showcasing this resource and educating you on how your organization can benefit from it.

Note: After the Membership Meeting there will be a SHA Policy/Advocacy Committee Meeting
